Avantel S.A.S., Selects StreamWIDE Voicemail Service

Lyndhurst, NJ, December 1st, 2011 – Avantel S.A.S., a Colombian mobile operator dedicated to the corporate and government segments in over 20 cities has selected StreamWIDE, (Alternext Paris: ALSTW) a world-class leader in voice messaging systems, to enhance their call completion services. StreamWIDE's sleek architecture, quick development time and cost effective Opex model easily out-paced the competition.

A full network evolution and migration from Avantel's legacy voice messaging system was recently unveiled. The new voicemail platform is hosted on very compact on-premise hardware and connects simultaneously to multiple NGN SoftSwitches.

"StreamWIDE has proved a very reliable VAS partner for the efficiency of their delivery services teams, the simplicity of their software architecture and the quality of functionalities included", Martha Liliana Romero, Gerente de Operaciones at Avantel S.A.S., "StreamWIDE was very sensitive to each of our business and customer satisfaction concerns– a true enterprise partner".

Avantel S.A.S., is now delivering advanced StreamWIDE voicemail features to its business users, including call screening, call blast or auto-attendant service, and plans to leverage the convergence capabilities of the platform to extend quickly to fax and reachability management services.

"Avantel S.A.S., shares many of the same values we practice at StreamWIDE. Their commitment to Service, Quality, Ethics and Loyalty has make it easy for us to, once again, provide a state-of-the art deployment producing immediate increased ARPU for the operator focused with customer retention and satisfaction programs " Juan C. Sanchez, StreamWIDE Senior Sales Director for the CALA region.
